- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: PHILLIP JORDAN

CASE NUMBER: 3: 15 CR 30053 - MGM - 001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant is prohibited from possessing a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
2. For the first ninety (90) days of the term of supervision, the defendant is to reside in a Residential Re-Entry Center, and shall observe the rules of that facility.
3. The defendant is to participate in a program for substance abuse counseling as directed by the Probation Office, which program may include testing, not to exceed 104 drug tests per year to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of alcohol or drugs. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment based on the ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.
4. The defendant is to participate in a mental health treatment program as directed by the Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment based on the ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.
5. Pursuant to the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, the defendant shall register as a sex offender not later than 3 business days (from release or sentencing, if granted probation). The defendant will keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the defendant resides, is employed or is a student. The defendant shall, not later than 3 business days after each change in name, residence, employment, or student status, appear in person in at least one jurisdiction in which the defendant is registered and inform that jurisdiction of all changes in the information. Failure to do so may not only be a violation of this condition but also a new federal offense punishable by up to 10 years imprisonment. In addition, the defendant must read and sign the Offender Notice and Acknowledgment of Duty to Register as a Sex Offender per the Adam Walsh Child Protection And Safety Act of 2006 form.
6. The defendant shall participate in a sexual specific evaluation to determine the appropriateness of sex offender specific treatment, said evaluation to be conducted by a sex offender treatment provider, as directed and approved by the Probation Office. Should treatment be deemed appropriate, the treatment provider shall be trained and experienced in the treatment of sexual deviancy, and follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The sexual specific evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing which may include polygraph and/or ABLE screening. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of the evaluation, according to his/her ability, as determined by the Probation Office. When submitting to a polygraph exam, the defendant does not waive his or her Fifth Amendment rights, and the defendant's exercise of such rights will not give rise to a violation proceeding. The results of the polygraph examinations may not be used as evidence in Court to prove that a violation of community supervision has occurred, but may be considered in a hearing to modify release conditions and/or could initiate a separate investigation.
